

Nixon's News

Week of: May 2

Ms. Nixon

kristin.nixon@cobbk12.org
King Springs Elementary
First Grade

<http://kingsprings.typepad.com/knixon/>

Swingin' Through the Week

Don't Monkey Around – Do your homework nightly!

1. Be sure to complete 4 activities from your homework calendar a week!
2. Read (to, with, & by) 15-20 minutes and record it on your reading log(s).
3. Return your notebook every FRIDAY!

Are you checking and signing your child's folder nightly?

Reading: Assessments

**Has your child mastered the first grade reading standards?*

Writing: Review of 3 Genres

**Can your child write narratives, informational and opinion pieces which have an opening sentence, 3-4 details, and provide a sense of closure?*

Please encourage correct grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation!

Math: 3D Shapes

**Can your child distinguish defining and non-defining attributes of 3D shapes and build and draw 3D shapes?*

Content: American Folktales

**Can your child read and listen to American folktales and explain how they characterize our national heritage?*

Top Banana Events

May 3: Math SLO @ 9:00am

May 4: Folktale Play @ 8:30 in Cafeteria...Come dressed in your best western wear. All parents are invited to attend!

May 5: Throwback Thursday...Bring $1 & wear clothes from the past!

May 6: STEAM Day

May 7: Relay for Life @ Jim R. Miller Park 2-11pm

News from the Teacher:

Homework for the Month of May:

- *Practice for our Folktale Play
- *Work on Your Market Day Project
- *Read 20 Minutes EVERY Day
- *Practice your Spelling Words and Math Facts

Weekly Words

Has your child been practicing our spelling words for this week?
Your child should be able to recognize and spell these words!
Don't forget about the helpful power points on the blog!

☺ Top BANANA OF THE WEEK: ELLA WALKER ☺ SPRINGER OF THE MONTH: NAVI METCALFE ☺

